

Plan W9815SW: Getaway Awash with Windows

House plans are Copyright © 2009 by our architects and designers.

- Shingle siding highlighted with fishscale accents and traditional double-hung windows borrow from pleasing Craftsman styling while the heavy timber porch and deck framing topped with a clean lined glass railing bring a modern touch to the exterior of this unique home plan.
- The main level easily transforms itself into a mother-in-law or private guest suite complete with a separate access.
- Covered front porches, screened rear porch or the open sundeck on both levels ensures outdoor activities endure regardless of the prevailing weather.
- The second level is totally dedicated to fulfilling the needs of the vaulted Master Suite part of which is a multi-purpose reading, hobby or exercise room and a massive sundeck.
- Access to a floating library overlooking the living/dining room is via a connecting bridge. Glass railings, exposed truss timber framing and floor beams make this a totally special and reflective space.
