Plan W72110DA: Contemporary Log Home

House plans are Copyright © 2009 by our architects and designers.

- This home plan is a contemporary log home with a wide, V-shaped deck that reflects the A-frame shape of its handsome front fa'ade.
- Covered porches extend out from the A-frame, on the left and right. The left porch and steps lead to the main entry, which opens into a two-story-high vaulted great room, richly glassed across the front. Wide sliders on the opposite wall provide additional deck access next to a brick or stone fireplace.
- More natural light washes down into the great room through six skylights. Several of these are directly over the vaulted balcony/loft that overlooks the great room from the second floor landing.
- Two vaulted bedrooms, a bathroom and a linen closet are also on this level. Each bedroom has two skylights, a private balcony and good-sized closet.
- This home plan's master bedroom is on the ground floor. Nonetheless, it's a quiet space because a closet and stairway serve as sound buffers between this bedroom and the great room. The nearby bathroom has a combination tub and shower.
