Plan W32106AA: Luxurious Mediterranean Styling

House plans are Copyright © 2009 by our architects and designers.

- Luxurious style and the exterior materials used for this Mediterranean style home plan provide the larger family with plenty of room while allowing each to have their own space.
- The amenities within this home plan are evident in every room on both floors including the elusive master suite and bath. The open ceilings and coffered treatment ceilings add elegance throughout each room.
- Covered patios and balconies allow access to the outdoors for quiet reading and meditation.
- The rear orientation of the home would be perfect for any waterfront property.
