

Plan W47018PR: Cozy Cabin

House plans are Copyright © 2009 by our architects and designers.

- With 750 square-feet of living space, this cozy cabin makes a perfect weekend retreat. At the center of the vacation house plan, the high-ceilinged living room has a built-in fireplace with tall window wrapping around the corners on either side.
- The open-plan kitchen has an overhead loft that is perfect for storage or for use as an extra sleeping space. A sunny window seat is located at the far end of the kitchen.
- Each of the two side wings of the home plan contain bedrooms with adjacent private baths. Each wing also has its own private entrance, making the cabin easy to convert to a rental property.
- Completing the design, a large wraparound deck is roomy enough to accommodate the fair weather activities of a houseful of family and friends.
