Plan W4073DB: Stylish Inside And Out

House plans are Copyright © 2009 by our architects and designers.

- A grand eye-catching turret next to an arched entry alludes to the stylish interior of this four-bedroom home. The open floor plan allows the study, dining room, kitchen and breakfast room to be viewed from the family room. High ceilings abound, and a cathedral ceiling ties the kitchen and family room together. The family room can be viewed from a second-floor balcony.
- Both the master bedroom and the breakfast room open to the rear porch, which is visible through windows on either side of the family-room fireplace. The kitchen contains lots of counter space and is easily accessible to the breakfast room, dining room, butler's pantry and utility room. The open dining room creates a feeling of spaciousness.
- In the master suite, the compartmented bath boasts a walk-in closet, a corner garden tub flanked by vanities and a separate shower.
- Upstairs, three family bedrooms share a bath with a separate compartment for two vanities. Attic storage is reached from the balcony.
- Foundation options: basement or slab.
