Plan W6331HD: Grand Entrance, Grand Living

House plans are Copyright © 2009 by our architects and designers.

- The impressive entrance to this Mediterranean design matches the grand living style within. High-volume ceilings are found throughout the house, as well as over the covered patio that angles around in back. The patio includes an optional summer kitchen and direct access to a full bath.
- The foyer is centered on the living room, where backyard views are visible through a windowed wall. A formal dining room is found at one side of the foyer. Adjacent to the foyer is a den or study that could be used as a guest room or fourth bedroom.
- Occupying its own wing, the opulent master suite, which opens onto the patio, features twin walk-in closets and a compartmented bath with a soaking tub set in a bay.
- On the other side of the house, two family bedrooms share the third full bath. The family side of this home centers around the island kitchen, which overlooks the pool area, nook and family room.
- Foundation: slab.
